

Virtual Dental Simulation Software

Published date: July 17, 2014

Technology description

The Virtual Dental Patient is a computerized system for dental assessment. The system uses a patient's digital medical records to construct an accurate 3D model of the surface anatomy of hard and soft tissues, tooth contacts, and jaw motion. The system can compare the patient model to general population statistics to generate a report to aid the diagnostic process.

Institution

University of Minnesota

联系我们

叶先生

电话 : 021-65679356

手机 : 13414935137

邮箱 : yeyingsheng@zf-ym.com